

Condos and Townhomes

Affordable to Those Below 80% of Median Income

Note: The urban part of unincorporated King County is represented by the shading appropriate to its overall affordability level. However, there may be significant variation in affordability in different regions of the unincorporated urban area. Rural unincorporated areas are not represented on this map.